Taxi

There is a taxi rank at the station although it is recommended to order taxis in advance to avoid disappointment. Taxi companies in Scarborough with accessible taxis include; Nippy Taxis (01723 377377) and Station Taxis (01723 366366).

There is parking at the station, and 7 accessible spaces. Parking is free for registered disabled customers parking in disabled spaces displaying a valid Blue Badge Permit. Blue Badge holders must also register their permit at bit.ly/tpebluebadge in order to obtain free parking.

There are no payment machines at Scarborough train station. Customers can purchase their parking tickets via the APCOA connect app, www.apcoaconnect.com or via phoning the automated payment line on 01895 262 122. To find out more about travelling around this station, please see the 360 map by following this link.

Bus

The closest bus stop to Scarborough Library is the Westborough Bus Station. It is one of the stops for bus services; 10, 115, 8, 20, 7, and 7A.

More information to coordinate your journey can be found on the East Yorkshire buses website, linked here.

Car

There is no parking immediately outside the library. There is a loading bay for drop offs and pickups, but parking is prohibited.

The most convenient parking is at the Palm Court multi-storey on Vernon Road or the Brunswick multi-storey on York Place.

The Brunswick multi-storey car park has 15 disabled parking spaces and 6 parent and child spaces. There is a lift to all floors. You can pay on-site by visiting a kiosk, or sign up for Hozah Autopay which will pay automatically. The car park is open from 7am until 6pm daily (closing 6.30 pm). For more information, please visit their website, linked here.

For more information on Scarborough parking, please visit Parkopedia, linked here.

The palm court multi-storey car park has disabled parking spaces, and parent and child spaces on the first floor. There is a lift to all floors. Pay machines are located on the ground floor by the main entrance and also on the first floor stairwell. The car park is open daily from 7am to 11pm (Securely Locked 11pm to 7am). For more information, please visit their website, linked here.

Alternatively, Scarborough has a park and ride scheme on the A64 and the A165 Filey approach to town.
